ARKANSAS IMPACT

The Arkansas Impact solidified their hold on second place in the PBL's Western Division with a 116-113 win over the Dallas Defenders. With one more game on the docket – a Monday night pre-playoff matchup against the Jacksonville Slam – the Impact could bust a few brackets in the PBL playoffs.

CHICAGO THROWBACKS

The Chicago Throwbacks finished up the regular season with a 114-105 loss to the Dallas Defenders. "We just can't seem to put together a complete game. We led by as many as fifteen and were up twelve at halftime but did not defend well in the third which allowed them to gain momentum", said head coach Donnie Boyce.

The Throwbacks did end the season on a positive note, taking a 112-111 overtime victory against the division-leading Quad Cities Riverhawks. "This was a big win for us, we needed to taste victory heading into the playoffs. The fact that we were able to defeat the number one team in our division should give us the confidence needed in the playoffs", said head coach Donnie Boyce.

DALLAS DEFENDERS

After falling to the Arkansas Impact earlier in the week, 116-113, the Dallas Defenders rebounded with a 156-119 win over the Jacksonville Slam. The Defenders continued their final week run with a 114-105 victory over the Chicago Throwbacks, then took a 129-106 win over the Maryland Nighthawks. Playing like a completely new franchise, Dallas has won their final three matches of the season and are looking toward a strong run in the playoffs.

Jacksonville Slam

JACKSONVILLE SLAM

After the Jacksonville Slam lost 156-119 to the Dallas Defenders, the Jacksonville Slam were destroyed by the Quad Cities Riverhawks 143-111 on the road at Black Hawk College. Despite the loss, however, Anthony Lumpkin showed he could not be stopped, draining 45 points - including six three-pointers – in the Slam defeat.

Lumpkin continued his torrid scoring pace on Sunday night as the Slam fell to the Rockford Fury 143-117: Lumpkin scored 33 points while playing all 48 minutes of the game. Donald Harris had a double-double of 25 points and 10 rebounds in the Jacksonville loss.

MARYLAND NIGHTHAWKS

After falling 123-102 to the Rochester Razorsharks in a weekday match at Blue Cross Arena, the Maryland Nighthawks wound up their regular season with a 112-81 road loss to the Reading Railers on Saturday afternoon. Despite the loss, Omar Weaver finished with 25 points on the afternoon; Warren Jefferson added 20 for the Blackbirds. David Bailey was the top rebounder, pulling down 10 boards. "J.O." Ratdech Kruatiwa saw significant playing time, and responded with 11 points. On Sunday afternoon, the Nighthawks lost to the Dallas Defenders 129-106.

Quad Cities Riverhawks

QUAD CITIES RIVERHAWKS

Showing the rest of the league that they are the team to beat in the Western Division, the Quad Cities Riverhawks took apart the Jacksonville Slam 143-111 at Black Hawk College. Keith Gaydon, sidelined the past three weeks by a pulled muscle in his back, paced the slam-dunking affair in his first game back with a QC-high 30 points and countless jams. Johnny Cox added 20 points off the bench, and point-man Lonnie Randolph nearly posted a triple-double with 12 points, 10 rebounds, 8 assists and 5 steals.

On Sunday the Riverhawks traveled to Chicago for the regular season finale against the Chicago Throwbacks. Even though the Riverhawks took a 25-point lead into the first half, Chicago charged back and eventually won the game in overtime, 112-111. "This was the most selfish we have played all year long," said Riverhawks head coach LaTroy Farrow, "and it is upsetting how well we have been playing to end the year like this. We will regroup and will be ready for the Western Division Championship playoff game on Thursday." Ty Johnson led the Riverhawks with 23 points and Ryan Edwards also notched 22 points in the losing effort. Willie Mitchell added a double double for the Riverhawks with 17 points and 11 rebounds. The Riverhawks end the regular season with a 15-5 overall record.

READING RAILERS

Finishing up the regular season with a Saturday afternoon contest at the Sovereign Center, the Reading Railers took it to the Maryland Nighthawks, 112-81. Tayron Thomas and Lennox McCoy scored 17 points apiece; Jared Mills added 16 for Reading. Aaron Williams finished with a team-high 18 rebounds, while Mills added 12 boards of his own. At one point in the matchup, the Railers had a 26-point lead on the Blackbirds.

Sunday afternoon, the Railers hit the road for a game against the Wilmington Sea Dawgs. Continuing their strong second-half run, the Railers led the entire match and won 96-82, buoyed by 18 points from Lennox McCoy and 19 points from Jerald Brown; Brown's total included five 3-pointers. Aaron Williams pulled down 14 boards.

Wilmington Sea Dawgs  430 Eastwood Road, Suite 200  Wilmington NC 28403  Office: (910) 791-5523  Fax: (910) 256-4589  Head coach: Kevin Whitted  Home arena: Joe and Barbara  Schwartz Center, Cape Fear CC  goseadawgs.com	 <h2 style="margin: 0;">WILMINGTON SEA DAWGS</h2>   The Wilmington Sea Dawgs cemented their hold on second place in the PBL's Eastern Division with a 97-92 victory over the Rockford Fury. Byron Mouton and Jermaine Williams each had 20 points for the Sea Dawgs; while Jason Pryor had 18 points for Wilmington. Williams led the Sea Dawgs in rebounds with nine boards. On Sunday afternoon, the Sea Dawgs hosted the Reading Railers. Unfortunately for Wilmington, the Dawgs could not get a solid footing in the game, bowing to the Railers 96-82. Byron Mouton's 22 points were tops for the North Carolina crew, while Devon Mooring added 15. Jermaine Williams had a double-double of 12 points and 10 rebounds.

Game reports compiled via team press releases, and from articles appearing in the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, the Reading Eagle, the Rockford Register-Star, the Quad City Times, the Wilmington Star-News, and other newspapers.
