Rochester Razorsharks 100, Reading Railers 76

There will be one more game for the RazorSharks as they defeated the Reading Railers last night 100-76 in the East Division Championship. The last time these two teams faced off, Reading dominated winning 114-99 giving the RazorSharks their worst loss in team history. This time though the Railers couldn't match that and ran out of gas after playing their 3rd straight game in 3 days. The victory made it 46 straight wins at home, continuing their Rochester sports history record and now move on to their 2nd league championship game in 3 years (2005-2006 ABA Champions).

Rochester was led by Sammy Monroe's 16 points (pictured) and a huge night from James Reaves, who finished with 13 points and 14 rebounds and 4 blocks, capturing his league-leading 6th double-double of the season. The RazorSharks spread the ball around all night with 6 players scoring in double figures. Jerice Crouch also finished with 13 points and had 3 steals. The Reading Railers were led by Tayron Thomas' 11 points, 9 coming in the 1st, and finished with a team-high 18 points and 8 assists.

Arkansas Impact 102, Quad Cities Riverhawks 93

"We're going to the 'ship! We're going to the 'ship!" shouted a jubilant Arkansas Impact coach Todd Day as he danced with his players in their locker room, just moments after stunning the Quad Cities Riverhawks 102-93 in front of a packed house at Black Hawk College Gymnasium.

For three quarters, the Impact and Riverhawks battled tooth and nail, with neither team gaining more than a two-possession lead. The Riverhawks, buoyed by their raucous fan base, pulled to within a point at the third quarter, 71-70. But in the fourth quarter, the Impact took advantage of costly Riverhawks turnovers. Even in the final moments, with Quad Cities threatening to bring the game to within three points, Bobby Anderson missed two key free throws - the Hawks retained possession, but could not score on three consecutive jump shots.

Jeremy Bell stepped up to the plate for the Impact, scoring 23 points on 9-for-16 shooting from the floor. Teammates Ryan Holmes and Tyrone Davis put in 22 and 20 points, respectively, for Arkansas.

For the Quad Cities Riverhawks, Bobby Anderson had a double-double of 30 points and 14 rebounds, leading his team in both categories. Willie Mitchell (15 points) and Quinnel Brown (10 points) were the only other Riverhawks to score in double figures.
